Private Nature Retreat - Permanently!

This stunning property resembles something you would see advertised as a private and peaceful retreat, and you will feel an instant sense of relaxation when you come for your inspection!

Located in a quiet street and backing onto natural bushland that cannot be built out, this is the perfect spot to come home and unwind. Cosy up during winter with the fireplace, or cool down during the warmer months when the house will capture beautiful breezes. The architecturally designed property is spacious and cleverly designed, and features two expansive outdoor decks and ample living over 3 split levels. This property is a very special opportunity and is a must inspect!

Property features include:
