Circumstances Have Changed - This One Needs To Go Before Christmas

This home has been designed and constructed by a local builder for himself and his family to call home. Circumstances have now changed and this home is being offered to the market with clear instructions to sell!!

The home remains brand new and never lived in and is therefore eligible for the FHOG.

Upon entering the home you will immediately understand and respect that this home is simply not just another spec home in Kearneys Spring. The attention to detail, the high quality fixtures and of course the beautiful polished timber floors will no doubt impress!!
